DEDICATION

Words cannot express the deep sense of gratitude which we feel toward one who has contributed freely and unselfishly throughout these past four years of high school. He has always lent a helping hand to make our attempts successful ones, especially our Junior Prom. His cheerful personality has brought each one of us pleasure when the going was rough.

We, the Class of 1963, therefore, take great pleasure in dedicating Memoirs 1963 to our friend and advisor,

MR. GORDON SIMPSON

FOREWORD

With our school year coming to a close, we pause to look back upon the friends and happiness we have had. This year has been one filled with many experiences which we shall never forget. The joy of working in the new high school, the fun at our dances and games, and the hard work of struggling through another school year — these are all part of our memories of this past year. In MEMOIRS '63 we have tried to preserve for you, through pictures, these memories of R-C-S.

BOARD of EDUCATION

Mr. Prescott Archibald, President

For the Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk School District, the year 1963 has been one of remarkable progress, particularly with the students in grades 7 through 12 housed in a new modern building and with two new elementary schools nearing completion. Opportunities of which we could only dream a few years ago, now exist. Enrichment of the program is being made on all levels from the recently initiated honors program through the program for handicapped children.

Your Board of Education and your administrators can only do so much. The rest is up to you. In a world rapidly being changed by startling scientific advances, it becomes increasingly necessary for every one of you to take full advantage of every educational opportunity.

Speaking for the Board of Education, I want to congratulate you upon the successful completion of your high school studies and to wish you every success and happiness through the coming years.

Signed: Prescott D. Archibald

Principal's Message

1963 represented a successful school year for R-C-S in more ways than one. For one thing, a long-hoped for high school finally became a reality with facilities in certain areas such as science, shop, art and home economics second to none in the area. For another thing, the double session day was finally done away with as teachers and students returned to a full-day schedule. Most important of all, however, was the response of teachers and students alike to the new building and new schedule. A new high in Regents scholarship winners was attained; R-C-S students took part in a variety of educational activities ranging from mathematics competition to the Little Red Schoolhouse program; an honors program was begun for the first time; new clubs, new activities and new courses of study materialized; our sports teams achieved enviable records.

My thanks to our staff who helped make this such a successful year; my congratulations to our students who helped make R-C-S a bigger spot than ever on the educational map. May we all continue on to even greater successes in the years ahead.

SENIOR OFFICERS

We, the class of '63, will have many pleasant memories of our days at R-C-S. Our freshman year was highlighted by the "Black Slack Hop," and though our activities were limited because of double sessions, we made the most of those we had. The class sponsored two dances in our sophomore year - the most memorable of which was the "Muskrat Ramble." We dressed in costumes from the Twenties, did a few Charlestons, and had a wonderful time. As juniors we were very excited about our class rings, which we received at the "Ring Dance" on March 3, 1962. "Wonderland by Night," our Junior Prom, was perhaps our most outstanding social event.

By moving to a new school we were given added initiative in our senior year, both socially and scholastically. Ten per cent of our class had been elected to honor society, four members received letters of commendation for achievement in the National Merit Scholarship examination. About one-third of the class had made plans for further education. The "Sno-Ball," the "Fall Get-Together" and a bake sale added the final touches to our days at R-C-S.

Although we had all looked forward to graduation in June, we felt sad as we walked through the halls of R-C-S for the last time.

Grade 11 Officers and Steering Committee

After two years of double sessions, the juniors rejoiced over the advantages that our new school offered. Their class officers were Thomas Spadaro, president; Robert Nelson, vice president; Cheryl Wright, secretary; and Eugene Lipscomb, treasurer.

Starting with a fall dance, the juniors began an active school year. In April they received their school rings, and May was highlighted by their prom.

An active group, the juniors, have been well represented in sports, Honor Society, "Memoirs '63," F. T. A., F. N. C., Staff and Shield, Stamp Club, Chess Club and the Bridge Club.

Delegates to Press Conference

This year five juniors, accompanied by Mr. William Gearhardt, attended the annual Columbia Scholastic Press Conference in New York City. Memoirs, our school yearbook, placed third in its division. Though the delegates attended meetings, discussion groups, and learned much about the makings of a good yearbook, their trip was not entirely business.

For three days the delegates stayed at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel. After the business of the day was attended to, the fun of nights in New York City began. Dinner at famous restaurants, a play, and a shopping spree all added to the excitement of the trip.

Under the supervision of Mr. Herbert Holland, the Staff & Shield enjoyed a very profitable year. With Wayne Malary as editor-in-chief, the paper increased its number of very popular publications from six to fifteen a year. The final copy of the paper contained the senior will and prophecy besides other information about outstanding seniors. The paper has been a vital force in promoting school spirit through information of what is going on in school. It has furnished a medium of journalistic training for those interested in such a career. Contributions of materials were accepted from all classes.

On March 14 and 15, students representing the school paper attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference in New York. Attending workshops and viewing other school papers gave our students an excellent opportunity to gather new ideas for publishing the best possible paper.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers' Association is one of the oldest and most active school organization. This club, the only one to have evening meetings, meets on the second Tuesday of every month. "Teaching in Special Fields" has been this year's theme. Many speakers have been available because of the evening meetings. Elected as officers were: Danny Lyons, president; Karen Delp, vice-president; Barbara Orme, secretary; Eddie Craven, treasurer; and Diane Rossi, historian.

A teacher-aid program was again set up, and any F.T.A. member interested in observing and student teaching was able to participate. First semester saw members observing in the junior high, and an opportunity to work in the elementary grades was opened during second semester. At the end of each two-week observation period, students were required to turn in reports of their experience.

For the first time since the start of a regional F.T.A. association, our school had a member elected to the executive board. Kathleen Lynch was elected president of the Capital Area Future Teachers Association and appointed Marie Champier as her corresponding secretary. The regional conference in the fall was held at R-C-S.

In the fall, members of the club went on a field trip to New Paltz, a division of the State University.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurses Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Caroline Tulloch, began this year by showing the true meaning of Christmas. The members brought gifts and presented them to children in the Albany Hospital.

Each member took a turn talking to the students on the P.A. system, giving hints for better health.

Student nurses are guest speakers at F.N.C. meeting.

This year the hall patrol was established with Mrs. Lyons and Mr. Macintyre as advisors. The job of the hall patrol was to keep the traffic moving rapidly and orderly. In this way they helped the students to be more adult. Running and shouting in the halls were forbidden. School rules, such as no gum chewing and no taps on shoes, were also enforced. One major task they accomplished was controlling the congestion in the central stairwell.

The members of hall patrol did an excellent job this year and should be congratulated on their fine work. They gave up their study halls; missed class time; were present at P.T.A. meetings, openhouse, parents' nights, and other activities. This helped the teachers considerably.

To be a member of hall patrol, a student must have passing grades. During the second half of the year, three substitute members were chosen to help during the eighth period. They were John Cary, Theresa Hoffman, and Robert Gross. They helped to keep the halls clear during this period by checking passes.

Mr. Macintyre and Mrs. Lyons discuss hall patrol assignments.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club, which consisted of grades 7 and 8, met every other Monday during the eighth period with the help of Mrs. Granito. The purpose of this club was to do recreational math which included games based on strategy, logic problems, three-dimensional dominoes, and three-dimensional tic-tac-toe.

The members also contributed to the Science Fair which was held in February. They made polyhedrons and experimented with number systems. The members of the Math Club benefited greatly from their experience this year.

SPANISH CLUB

This year was the first year our school was fortunate enough to have a large Spanish Club. The club, under the direction of Mrs. Daris Hosler, had a very active Christmas season. The members had a Christmas party where they sang carols in Spanish. The club worked at setting up a Nativity scene entitled "El Portal."

The members planned for a Spanish Fiesta to be held in the spring.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Hosler, this year's Latin Club members had an active year. Pins and certificates were given to the twenty-eight members of the Junior Classical League which attempts to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world.

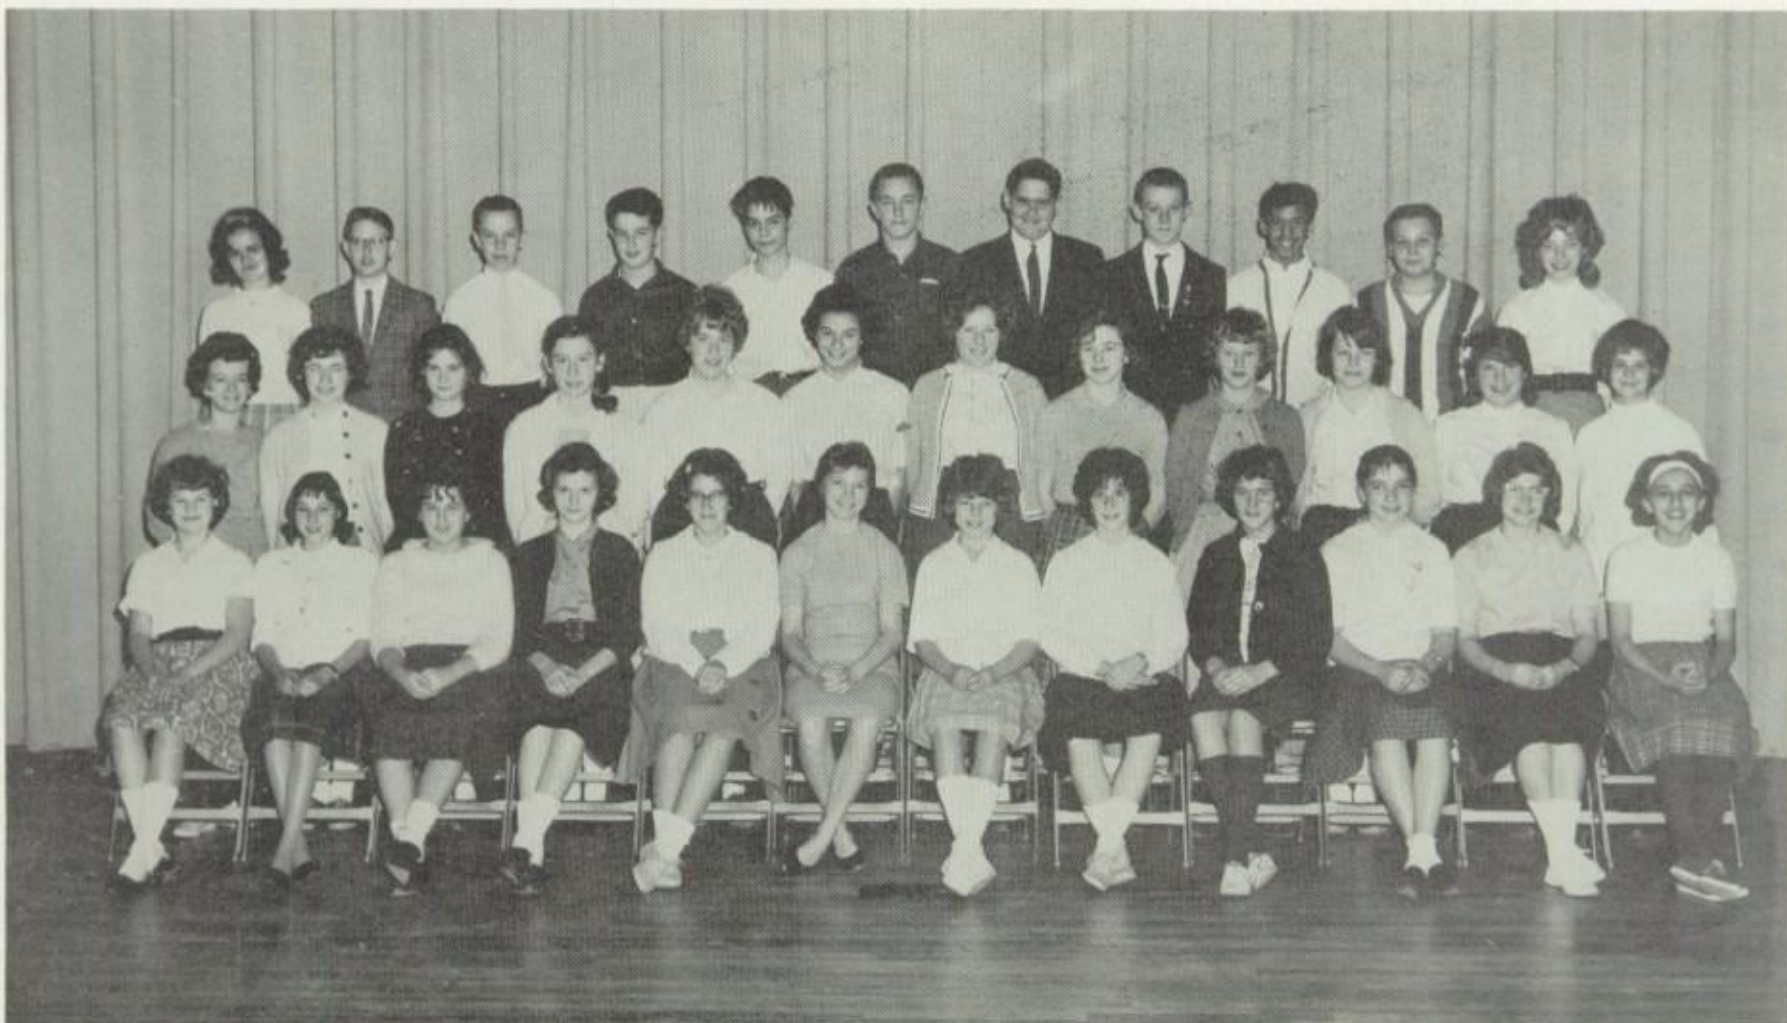

The club members enjoyed singing Christmas carols in Latin at their Christmas party. This active organization had a Roman banquet in the spring. The menu consisted of roast chicken, carrots, onions, lettuce, Italian bread and honey, grape juice, and apples and grapes. They ate in a reclining manner and dressed in the Roman dress. After the delicious meal they sang Latin songs and presented a skit.

Elected to one-year terms as officers were Claudia Griebisch, president; Debbie Wagoner, vice-president; Paula Jordan, secretary; Barbara Davies, treasurer; Dianne Rosato, program director.

JUNIOR HIGH DRAMATICS CLUB

The Junior High Dramatics Club met every Tuesday during the eighth period under the direction of Miss Hoxie. The members acted out scenes and skits and practiced line memorization.

During the second half of the year they studied the basic fundamentals of comedy and tragedy. They also undertook a project of writing their own play, which proved to be quite successful.

ASTERIA

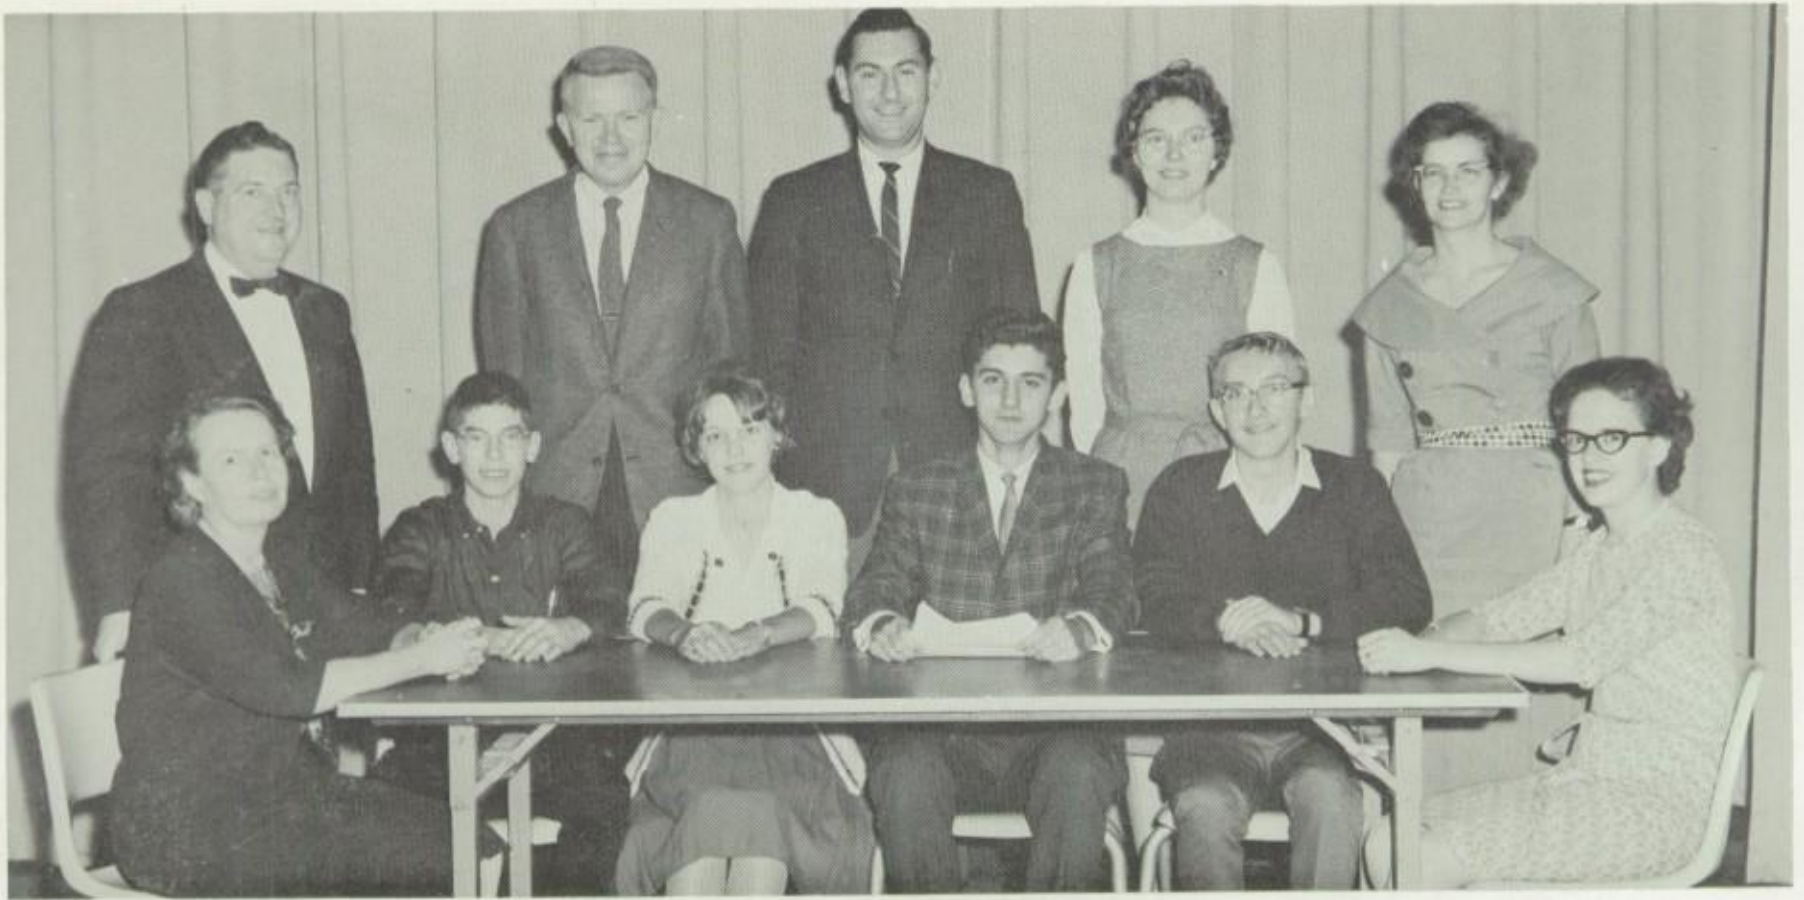

This year the senior high students were able to have a dramatics club under the direction of Mr. Graham Zeh. Since Mr. Zeh has had much experience in the field of acting, he was able to do an excellent job in training the members.

The organization started off the year by voting on a name for their club. The name "ASTERIA" was chosen since it meant star. For practice, the members put on minor plays. Everyone had a turn to be producer, director and actor.

In December "ASTERIA" presented its first major play "A Stranger in Bethlehem," to the students. On February twelfth the group had an excellent speaker, Miss Addyse Lane, tell them of her experiences in television and movies. She has been in the acting field for fourteen years. The club presented another major play for the student body on April 5th and 6th.

Standing: Mr. Zeh, advisor; R. Collins, treasurer. Sitting: P. Jordan, secretary; C. Griebisch, president; A. Powers, vice-president.

This year saw the formation of many new organizations, one of which was the Senior High Science Club. Ronald McLagan was elected president; Craig Stickler, vice-president; Alice Powers, secretary; and Charles Tier, treasurer. Mr. Hannigan was advisor to the organization. The club met on alternate Wednesdays. During the first part of the year it heard discussions from the various science teachers. Mrs. Roney gave an illustrated lecture on crystallography; Mr. Otten, rock types and structure; Mr. King, hematology; and Mrs. Selover, biogeography. Each member contributed something to the science fair which was held on February 14.

During the second semester the members saw latest movies on chemistry, biology and physics. They also took a trip to the museum in Albany to study the rock exhibits. Their last get-together was the banquet in the spring.

At the beginning of the year the Junior High Science Club met and elected officers for the oncoming year. Bette Archibald directed the meetings, and Marjorie Hamilton took over when Bette was not present. Nancy Gifford took the notes while Patricia Carhart counted dues of members. The club met on alternate Wednesdays during the eighth period.

The first half of the year was devoted to working on projects for the annual science fair which was held on February 14. This proved to be fun for all as new areas of science were opened for them.

The second half of the year included the study of rocks and a trip to the museum in Albany to study the geology exhibit. They also read books on the various fields of science and reported on them.

STAMP CLUB

This year saw the formation of the Stamp Club, headed by Mr. Sturges, a shop teacher. It was the first time that such an organization has existed at R-C-S. The club met every Wednesday during the eighth period. The members collected and studied various types of stamps, investigated to find out why the different designs were chosen and exchanged stamps among themselves.

CHESS CLUB

The chess club, under the direction of Mr. Carl, is one of the new clubs formed this year. Chess, an old game which is becoming quite popular among the high school set, takes lots of concentration and reasoning. It is not only a game of pleasure but also one which is educational.

The club, which consists of fourteen boys and two girls, met with Mr. Carl in room 32 every Monday during the eighth period. Tournaments were held to determine the school champion.

Junior High Handicraft Club

This year saw the formation of the Junior High Handi-craft Club. It met every Wednesday with the help of Mrs. Darmer, a home economics teacher. The girls knitted scarves, caps and slippers, and crocheted doilies. They also sewed luncheon sets with fancy stitchings. In the fall they worked on knitting Christmas gifts.

When spring came around, they worked on a project making many fancy decorations for tables. This experience will prove beneficial in future decorative endeavors.

Mrs. Miller, a home economics teacher, was advisor for the newly-formed Senior High Handi-craft Club this year. This club met Wednesdays during the eighth period. Elected as student coordinator by her fellow members was Brenda Storr. The girls knitted slippers and scarves. A few made bulky sweaters. Some made hemstitched and embroidered table cloths.

After the approval of a new constitution, the Honor Society with Mr. Donato, their advisor, began an active year. As usual new members were initiated in a three-day ceremony which included "Dress-Down Day," "Dress-Up Day," and the formal initiation ceremonies.

At the initiation ceremonies, seniors were awarded sweaters and sophomore probationary members were announced. These members were Audrey Rickard, Linda Pilhofer, Neville Strumpf, Dennis Stickler, Charles Tier, Sandy Battaglia, Deborah Wagoner, and Paula Jordan. A very successful dance was held in May.

The Varsity Club this year has had one of its best years. This organization is composed of boys who have earned a varsity letter. The Varsity Club's advisor was Mr. Caark, who has devoted much of his time to help make it a success for the boys.

The first money-making event for the club this year was the selling of rosters at the Hallowe'en football game. Following this, they had a very successful dance, annual candy sale, and bake sale which netted approximately $450. Again they sold rosters, this time at the Catskill basketball game. They also had a movie at the Ravena Theatre.

With the money they made, they put an Indian head in the Ravena Gym, paid for their jackets, and took a trip to New York City. The club provided a plaque which will annually have engraved upon it the names of one outstanding player in each varsity sport.

BRIDGE CLUB

Bridge Club was formed for the purpose of introducing interested students to the fundamentals of contract bridge, a card game they will be able to enjoy throughout their lives. It also provides an opportunity for those students who already are acquainted with the game to compete against each other in a friendly atmosphere.

B. Beggs, vice-president and treasurer; B. Wheat, president; M. Hoffman, secretary.

Under the direction of Mr. Collins, a new club was instituted. The Yorker Club consisted of seventh grade students; it is hoped that the membership will include both junior and senior high students next year. Since the main purpose of the club is to study New York history, a field trip to Coopers-town was planned. In the spring they attended the annual Yorker Convention held in New York City.

During the first year of the Debate Club, the members attended and participated in debates at Siena and State University College at Albany. In March, the Debate Club joined the National Forensic League.

Under the leadership and guidance of Mr. Bruce, the members of the Debate Club debated the following topics: 1. that the United States should promote a Common market for the western hemisphere; 2. that the United States should adopt a policy of reciprocal free trade with non-communist nations; 3. that the Congress should abolish protective tariffs.

The activity treasurers, under the direction of the central treasurer, Miss Clara Staley, have a very important job. They are responsible for all of the financial activities of classes and clubs. After the money is collected from class dues, dances, bake sales, and other occasions, the treasurer must consult Miss Staley about making deposits and disbursements.

BAND

With the addition of practice rooms, a larger band room, and longer school day, the band improved tremendously. Mr. McNaughton, the director, had senior members alternate each week in conducting the warm-up exercise. This experience taught the seniors some fundamentals in conducting. He also arranged for the Ithaca College Wind Ensemble to play for the student body at a weekly assembly.

The Christmas, Winter, and Spring Concerts were held. The band and its soloists at the April Music Festival received an excellent grade in statewide school competition.

The twist, waltz or rock 'n roll, nothing was too new or old for this year's dance band to play. The dance band consisted of eleven members. Dan Pape and Dan Neal-and, the two senior members, have been active members for four years. This year the dance band performed at the annual Ring Dance. Good music made the affairs held by the dance band successful. Next year the dance band will be composed of the same members except for the two seniors. Good replacements for the graduating seniors will assure the success of the dance band next year.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth McCabe, the Senior High Chorus, which met on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, consisted of both boys and girls. The boys were from grades seven through eleven and the girls were from grades ten through twelve. The chorus did something new this year by electing officers. These officers were Claudia Griebisch, president; Candy Holliday, vice-president; and Robert Burkhart and Carol Parks, librarians. All members of the chorus received new blue robes with white collars. They sang a few selections in the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Varsity Football: L. Powell, J. Orsino and E. Cary clear the field for R. Stumbaugh, carrying ball.

This year's football team has had another very successful season. The team was predicted to finish very low in the standings, but under the excellent coaching of Mr. Peter Russo, Mr. Victor Caark, and Mr. Richard Apple, it ended up in first place with a fine record of six wins and one loss.

This year the boys were very light, but they made up for it in their speed and eagerness to play.

The team was champion of the Hudson Valley League and tied for the championship in the Little Eight Conference.

Last year the baseball team had a very successful season. The experience gained by the underclassmen should give Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk an excellent team in the years to come.

The team won eight games and lost two, and although defeated by Catskill for the Section "B" Central Hudson Valley League championship, our boys came in second.

H. Engel, captain; Mr. Tucker, coach.

 Row 2: E. Craven, G. Palmer, C. Trenchard, R. Jenkins, D. Lyons, R. Gross, A. Lewa-
 nick, R. Jones, L. Williams. Row 3: Mr. Spring, coach; R. Luther, W. Filkins, R. Smith, R. Traver, C. Friday, L. Root, R. Richmond.

TRACK

Our track team ran five meets last year, defeating two schools out of the five. During these meets three records were broken. Chuck Friday broke his own record, only to move the time down three seconds.

A fairly new event to be entered in competition is the hop-skip and jump. This record was held by Art Fowler, but Bob Nelson came on to set a new record with a distance of 41 feet, 6 inches.

In an off-season track meet, Ravenna sent one representative to enter the competition. The selection of Dan Lyons was a wise choice because Dan took a first place in the high jumping event by jumping 5 feet, 10 inches to set a new school record.

A. Williams achieving another first in the running broad jump.

E. Lipscomb, C. Russo. 1-2-3 and they're off for the fifty yard dash.

Coach Spring and Co-Captain C. Friday talking over another meet.

D. Lyons doing his famous high jump.

PROM

R. Rauche, K. Lynch, L. Rarick, K. Burns, W. Conrad, M. Hagan.

Saturday night, May 26, 1962, was the evening of the Junior Prom, "Wonderland By Night." The Juniors worked busily throughout the year to make their prom a successful one. When spring came, everyone became eager for the big night to come. At eleven o'clock on the big night, a hush filled the auditorium. At this time the court and candidates for king and queen marched out to "Pomp and Circumstance." Muriel Lipschutz, Robert Stumbaugh, Carol Irwin, Douglas Deyoe, Margaret Healing, Lawrence Westervelt, Sharon Frey, and Lawrence Powell were the candidates.

Last year's king and queen, Charles Friday and Darleen Alberts, descended from the stage to the ballroom floor and crowned Sharon Frey and Lawrence Westervelt as the new king and queen.

The prom was a night everyone will remember, especially the members of the class of '63.

RING DANCE

Dawn Thurston is congratulated by Mr. Roney as she walks through the replica of the class ring.

Deanie Rarick, Billy Hamilton, Mary Ann Twardowsky, Jim Filkins, Carol Irwin, and Doug Deyoe are the happy Juniors seen dancing around the large class ring.

The Members of the Junior Class stand on the stage, eagerly awaiting the moment when they will be able to put on their rings.

Danny Lyons, Elaine Boyea, Deanie Rarick, and Bobby Stumbaugh are all smiles as they admire their class rings.

March 3, 1962, was the date of the fourth annual Ring Dance sponsored by the Student Council. This event is the established ceremony for the presentation of the class rings. At 10 p.m., Mr. Roney began the ceremony with an explanation of the symbols on the rings. The Juniors then walked two by two off the stage and through a large replica of the ring on the gym floor. Those who watched the ceremony could see the rings displayed proudly by the Juniors.

T. Williams and B. Jenkins, football players, holding their football cookies that were made by the kitchen personnel. All members of the team received their cookies at the Annual Christmas Party.

Mrs. Pearsall and Chuck Friday looking at "Italian Recollections," a painting given to the school by the 1962 Sr. High Student Council.

Have you ever really examined the painting? It is, as its title implies, a painting of Cascio's remembrances of Italy. Since he left there when only six years old, his remembrances are somewhat vague and distant.

In one corner is the suggestion of the famous fountains of Rome. The dark area in the opposite corner could be taken to represent a storm that Cascio had seen at some time and remembered vividly. Under it are arches which could be taken to represent the Colosseum or some other Roman structure. Next to these, at the left is a domed building that is unmistakably St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Still farther left are some buildings which can be taken to represent almost any building in Italy, from slums to palaces.

Notice the strong, bold brush strokes, the vivid coloring and the composition. It is an excellent example of impressionistic painting. Such comments as "It's original anyway, if nothing else," or "I haven't figured it out yet!" ought to be gradually replaced by "If you study it, you can see some of the many things for which Italy is renowned."

OBJECTS

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

Jim,
Best of luck
Always to a real sweet guy. Always remember the fun we had this year, and never forget the class of '65.
Always.
Jinda
'65

There were times we thought we wouldn't,
But we finally got it done,
It took a lot of effort,
But we had a lot of fun.

Here it is... we hope you liked it !!
